ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR COUNSEL

07 Civ. 8835 (GEL)(FM)

FRANK MAAS, United States Magistrate Judge.

The plaintiff in this action seeks the appointment of pro bono counsel pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (e) (1). The Second Circuit's decision in Cooper v. A. Sargenti Co., Inc., 877 F.2d 170, 172 (2d Cir. 1989), indicates that the threshold inquiry on such an application is whether the case has merit. If it appears that the case has merit, the Court must next consider the plaintiff's ability to pay for private counsel, efforts to obtain unpaid counsel, and ability to present the case without assistance. Id. The Court must also be mindful that the supply of volunteer counsel is limited.

I have conducted several conferences with the plaintiff and have reviewed her application. In my judgment, the plaintiff has not made a showing sufficient to warrant the requested appointment. Accordingly, the plaintiff's application is denied.
